

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. Broward County Alumnae Chapter

Empowering the community through knowledge and education

The Broward County Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. has a long successful history of providing public service programs to the residents of Broward County through its Five Point Programmatic Thrust, which consists of Economic Development, Educational Development, International Awareness and Involvement, Physical and Mental Health, and Political Awareness and Involvement.

The Broward Chapter provides adolescent health and development programs, economic and social action initiatives, early childhood reading programs, tutorial programs, as well as offers college and vocational scholarships to recognize high school students who excel academically. The sorority also holds multiple signature fundraising events throughout the year to fund its community projects.

Most recently, the sorority, in partnership with Fort Lauderdale's Adopt-a-Street Program, adopted N.W. 21st Avenue from N.W. 19th to N.W. 26th Street. This corridor houses the Kathleen C. Wright Education and Development Center. Affectionately known as the "Delta House," the center is located at 2250 N.W. 21st Avenue in Fort Lauderdale, Florida.
